their trainers. Most trainers, however, are hungry. They are sure that the shot of cortisone will equal 10% of the Juvenile purse, and boy could they use $3750.00 right now. Frequently the owner is not on hand when the vet is called. So what does the colt get most of the time?—the needle.

Nevertheless there are some owners—and there could be a lot more—who are on hand, who can realise that the quick dollar is, in reality, bad business, and who will order trainers to consult them about such problems. For such owners the vet can do a lot more—he can X-ray the other youngsters in the barn to determine the maturity of bones and joints, he can make the blood tests which may indicate calcium and other deficiencies.

Our best hopes for breaking up this suicidal sequence rest on the shoulders of race track veterinarians. Let us make sure that they have every encouragement to practice the highest standards of their profession.

Letters

Red Moss

Dear Sir:

It is my sad duty to inform you of the death, in Warrenton, Virginia, on Friday, June 24, of Clarence G. "Red" Moss, an organizer and Vice President of the Pennsylvania National Horse Show.

Red Moss probably knew more people in the Horse Show world than most of us. Not only did he carry the Announcer's burden at Harrisburg for more than 15 years, but he has announced other shows in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia. He was a devoted follower of the Horse Show world and contributed immeasurably to the development of horse shows through the East particularly.

We of the Pennsylvania National will miss him tremendously and it will not seem the same Horse Show without him beside the mike when the Pennsylvania National begins its initial session of 1960 on October 15.

Very sincerely,
Albert H. Stackpole
President

Let's Create Interest

Dear Sir:

A few thoughts on horse show publicity, which seems so woefully lacking in ability to attract interest.

I have just returned from two days spent at the Pebble Beach Three-Day Event. Because of commitments at home, I had to leave within minutes of the finish

TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING AND THE VETERINARIAN

Probably the most unrequited plea in the history of the Thoroughbred is that for less two-year-old racing. As Mark Twain once said about the weather, everybody deplores it, but nobody does anything about it. The quotation is not quite apt, however; something is being done. Every year we see more races carrying more money for juvenile performers.

The tears shed for two-year-olds, as a matter of fact, are largely of the crocodile variety. Most American owners want action for their money—quick action. As long as they prefer to buy quick maturing yearlings that will win themselves out the following season, just so long will market breeders continue to produce them. Race track management wants races that will fill and that the public will bet on. Two-year-old races always fill, while the public, although traditionally mistrustful of such contests, continues to bet on them in a manner entirely satisfactory to the pari-mutuel boys.

Obviously it is the owner who holds the key to the situation, the man who buys the yearlings, pays the trainer, and makes the entries. A great deal has been said and written, addressed to owners as a group, to make them change their present practices. The fallacy of this approach is that race horse owners do not work as a group. On the contrary they are the most individualistic bunch to be found in any sport.

Consequently, if any progress is to be made, they must be approached on a man to man and on a horse to horse basis. The only people capable of doing this are the equine practitioners of the veterinary profession. For example, after his third start and second win a two-year-old pulls up sore in the ankles. The owner has the colt staked in a race two weeks away. So he calls in the vet. The latter has two alternatives. He can fill the ankles full of cortisone and tell the owner the colt will run to form in the Juvenile Stakes—which, with this help, he will. Or he can go further and point out that, if he does run the colt, the chances are that the latter will be unsound for good. He can suggest instead that the colt be rested and allowed to mature for another six months and that in such case the owner should have a high class horse that will carry his colours to victory for several seasons.

Faced with these alternatives most owners, quite properly, will consult

The Turf Break

Raleigh Burroughs

It is unlikely that radio performers realize the full extent of their listening public.

Many would be astounded to learn of the satisfaction and joy they dispense over the wings of the mysterious little megacycles.

It is true that disk jockeys, whose offerings are aimed at immature minds, are aware that they set young hearts bounding. The immature minds connected with the young hearts write in and ask for special recordings.

Also, such great and complicated operations as "Monitor" must receive loads of mail - or Monitor's time would be taken by something else.

There are some wireless workers, though, who cannot measure their "listenership" accurately, because they perform for the kind of people who are slow to write letters.

I refer, of course, to the anxious thousands who wait each afternoon for the financial reports sped to them by the miracle of the air - vital news of events taking place in the nations equine stadia - with prices.

Only a few thoughtful and discriminating broadcasting depots provide this valuable public service.

Deluxe Service

This service has been purveyed in deluxe manner since the beginning of the Delaware Park meeting (May 28) and will continue to the close (July 30).

In his campaign to see that mankind enjoys racing to the fullest, Mr. Bryan Field has left no stone unturned to make his horse park about as homey and pleasant as an open-air gambling den can be.

Mr. Field is not content with entertaining merely the segment of mankind that can get out to his park; he wishes to bring the thrill of the Turf to ALL mankind.

The radio is HIS kind of instrument, so each day, over a modest network the sixth at Delaware is blown into bars, taverns, homes, bowling alleys, apartments and parsonages.

To make sure the work is done properly, Mr. Field does it himself.

Anybody in Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania and parts of Virginia can find a station that carries Mr. Field's on-the-spot descriptions every afternoon except Sunday. (There'd be no sense in having it on Sunday, because there is no racing at Delaware Park on that day. Okay, then, GO to Longchamp).

Snooping around here and there, I have discovered that quite a few people who are supposed to be doing something else have been listening to Mr. Field's race.

Better Than Coffee

This has given rise to a new, exciting and completely wonderful custom - the Turf break.

It started, I believe, in the office of a careful gent who has kept a radio around, so, in case of atom attack, he could listen to the Conelrad signals.

One afternoon, dialing around to see if there was an atom attack going on anywhere, he bumped into station WNAV, and heard Mr. Field's inspiring voice. He sensed right away that something big was on the air. In a matter of seconds the man at the controls realized that nuclear fission was not involved; what he was hearing was much more interesting.

Natagar was leading, but Close Array was closing, and from the way Mr. Field was telling it, there seemed to be a good chance that there would be a tight fit at the end.

For some reason he couldn't put his finger on, the dallier at the dial began rooting for Natagar to stick it out. History records that, in this instance, Natagar did.

Immediately, it dawned upon the erstwhile Conelrad fan that he possessed a prescience factor hitherto unrealized - and untapped. There was no estimating what latent talents in this field lay within him.

In a discussion with friends the next day, he learned that there was considerably more fun in the game if the numbers hung up after each chukker could be made to represent equivalent figures in the medium of exchange, or, as the Indians used to say, wampum.

He learned further, that by calling a certain telephone number arrangements could be made to implement this conversion.

From All Tracks

This fellow learned very fast. He discovered that by pointing his radio set at WAQE, Towson, or WABW, Annapolis, he could get news from ALL tracks.

His favorite, however, is the running account of the Delaware race he gets from Mr. Field. Each day, when 4:30 p.m. comes around, he lays aside the cares of today, and those of yesterday he hasn't caught up with, and leans back to enjoy the exhilarating sport of Thoroughbred racing.

With his little portable popping off the way it does, it was only natural that his business associates should join him in this brief intermission from toil.

"Now," says the man Mr. Field won over, "it is much a part of the daily routine as the coffee break, the martini break or the one the kids over in the courthouse used to take in the file room."

"Actually it brightens my day, and it shortens it as well. When the race is over, it's time to lock up the desk and go home."

"It has brought a new esprit de corps to the office. Naturally, I do not wish those who work with me and for me to get tangled up with unprincipled bookmakers. I have worked out a plan to solve that problem. 'I'll hold their bets myself.'"

This gent finds that listening to the race helps him "unwind" and leaves him completely relaxed at the day's end.

He never worries about atom attacks any more.

Easy Mark

Belmont Park

The 76th running of the six furlongs Toboggan Handicap for 3-year-olds and upwards drew a field of six to Belmont's starting gate, on Wednesday, July 29. A scale weight stakes, it carried a purse of $25,000 added.

Jockey W. Hartack rode Brookfield Farm's homebred Intentionally to win with something in reserve, finishing two and one-half lengths in front of Clermont Stable's Rick City. Mrs. W. F. Wickes, Jr.'s Vendetta was third and Howell E. Jackson's Tick Tock, fourth.

Intentionally is a black colt by Intent out of My Recipe, by Discovery, trained by E. I. Kelly. The triumph netted the winner $17,835 and it was his first start since last September. It boosted his total earnings to $487,587.

A foul was claimed by jockey R. L. Stevenson who rode Rick City, and said Intentionally bothered his mount soon after the start. The claim was disallowed. It had no bearing on the outcome of the race as Intentionally could have bettered his time of 1.10 3/5 for the six furlongs and doubled his margin of victory if Hartack had chosen to ride him out in the last furlong of the race.

Aqueduct

Liberty Belle

Aqueduct opened its 26-day meeting on Friday, July 1, and featured the third running of The Liberty Belle. A handicap stakes for fillies 3-year-old and upwards, the purse was $25,000 added for a six furlongs race.

Owner-trainer F. M. Prickett, Jr.'s Mrs. Hellen, in at 110 pounds scored a three lengths victory over Rockburn Farm's Recite, carrying 121 pounds. H. P. Headley's Aesthetic was third and F. J. Viggiani's Craftiness crossed the wired in fourth position.

Mrs. Hellen is a brown 6-year-old mare by Noble Creek out of Queen Advice, by Good Advise. She was bred by M. and I. Prickett. Jockey G. Gibbs had the mount. The track was sloppy and Mrs. Hellen was timed at 1.10 for the six furlongs. A muddy track was just the ticket for Mrs. Hellen. In 1958 she won the Interborough Handicap, which was also run on a sloppy track. That nice mud brought her connections $18,322.50 net.

The Saranac Handicap

A half dozen three-year-olds started in the 55th running of the one mile Saranac Handicap, on Saturday, July 2 at Aqueduct. The handicap stakes had a purse of $25,000 added. Jockey M. Sorrentino rode Llangollen Farm's Divine Comedy to a half length victory over the favored John William, owned by Merrick Stable. Charter Oak Stable's Brush Fire was third and J. S. Kroese's Power Dam, fourth. The time was 1.34 3/5.

Divine Comedy is a chestnut son of *Khaled-Pilates Wife, by Pilate, bred by his owner, Mrs. M. E. Person. Charlie Whittingham trains the colt. The winning effort netted $17,867.50.

Monmouth Park

The big race at Monmouth Park on Wednesday, June 29, was The Coleen Stakes, for 2-year-old fillies. Run under allowance stakes conditions at five and one-half furlongs, it offered a purse of $20,000 added to the nine starters.

Jockey Charley Burr rode the winner, Little Tumbler, owned by Meadowbrook Stable. Little Tumbler led from end to end and finished four and one-half panels in front of the place horse, Harriet Robinson's Dream On. Wheatley Stable's Eastern Princess was third and E. Holton's Julitta, fourth. The winner's time was 1.04 1/5 for the 5 1/2 furlongs.

Little Tumbler is a bay filly by Royal Note out of Fairy Dancer, by Blenheim, bred by T. O. Campbell, and trained by W. R. Mitchell. It was her third victory in five starts and netted $15,382.50. Her owner, Joseph La Croix, purchased the young miss at last year's Keeneland Summer Sales for $10,500.

The Rumson

The 15th edition of the six furlongs Rumson Handicap, $25,000 added, drew eight performers, on Saturday, July 2, to Monmouth Park.

F. W. Hooper's homebred Alhambra won easily, showing three and one-half lengths of ozone to Rokeby Stable's Seven Corners. Mooring Stable's Tempted, which was the favorite, was third and Cambridge Stable's Pilot got fourth money. The clockers checked the winner in at 1.10 for the six furlongs over a fast track.

Alhambra is a 5-year-old brown horse by Olympia-Robins Charm, by Epithet. J. E. Tinsley, Jr., trained him and Willie Blum was in the saddle. The victory was worth $18,322.50 net. It brought Alhambra's career earnings to $285,039.

Suffolk Downs

Nine grass runners turned out for Suffolk Downs' 6th running of the John R. Macomber Memorial Handicap, for 3-year-olds and upwards, Wednesday, June 29. There was a $25,000 added purse in the offing for the one and one-half mile route.

Jaclyn Stable's *Sailor's Guide finished a half length in front of Mrs. J. Rose Clark II's King O'Turf. J. S. Kroese's *North Pole II was a neck further back for show money and W. C. Partee's *El Espectador was fourth. The winner was

Steeplechasing at Belmont

John E. Cooper

The Meadow Brook Steeplechase Handicap on Thursday, June 30th, was a thrilling climax to the New York steeplechase season at Belmont. Coming to the thirteenth and final fence in this two and a half mile, $17,500 added stake, Richard K. Mellon's Chambourg, second high weight under 155 lbs., and pacemaker for the entire trip, was being relentlessly overhauled by Montpelier's Benguala, (148 lbs.) and Mrs. Henry Obre's Hustle (139 lbs.) Inside the wings, the trio was head and head, but as they rose for the take-off, Hustle appeared to have about half a length advantage over his older and more experienced rivals. Not quite precise enough, Hustle got in deep and tossed his rider, Robert McDonald for a dramatic fall. With McDonald still clutching the reins Hustle veered to the inside, and caused jockey Jimmy Murphy and Chambourg to lose priceless ground. Meanwhile, on the outside, Albert Foot on Benguala steered clear of the trouble, and with whip, arms, legs and all heart, urged the Montpelier homebred toward the fast approaching wire. Gaining perhaps three quarters of a length on Murphy and Chambourg, the latter pair gamely battled Benguala for the advantage. Despite some previous inclination to hang in the closing stages, the big striding Chambourg inched closer to Benguala, and actually got his nose in front at the odds board, but the effort proved too much, and in the closing strides Benguala, with Foot, arms flailing, snatched the victory by a thin nose.

Field Of Eight Starts

After a slight delay at the start, George Cassidy got the field of eight off on even terms, and for more than a turn of the course, Chambourg led a tight knot with a scarce half dozen lengths separating the field. With due respect for the distance, Jimmy Murphy kept a snug hold on Chambourg, and while he held command by margins up to two and a half lengths, the *Rufigi-Lettone gelding did not appear to fancy the restraint. *Narcissus 2nd and Amateur raced closest to him, with Joe Aitcheson on the latter, riding his typical ground saving race on the inside. Except for Hustle, which put in a few bad ones, the entire field fenced well for the first lap of the course. An exciting moment in the race occurred as the field raced by the stands the second time, as Scottie Schulhofer on *Muguet 2nd, the top weight under 158 lbs., came from behind, and fencing boldly, ranged up into second place behind Chambourg. Turning into the far side the last time, it was still a very open race, but then a series of mishaps quickly changed the complexion of the contest. Midway down, *Muguet 2nd took a spectacular fall, a fence or so later, *Langton Breeze came down with Tommy Walsh, and Amateur started to give way badly. It latter developed he had broken down badly, and had to be removed from the course in the horse ambulance. *Narcissus 2nd (136 lbs.) dropped out of contention, and Easy Timer (134 lbs.) evidently did not fancy the hard footing, and showed little. Racing for the far turn, Chambourg held a comfortable lead, but Foot had moved the Montpelier gelding into a striking position, and McDonald had moved Hustle into third place. Sensing a battle royal as these three moved around the last turn, the crowd began to roar. Rounding the turn, the last two mentioned slowly gained on Chambourg and were on practically even terms with him straightening out for the run to the last fence. Had Hustle cleared the final jump, the result might have been different. In any event the two horse duel between Chambourg and Benguala was a thrilling sight in a race of this distance. *Narcissus 2nd and Easy Timer were well back for third and fourth in that order.

Time for the Meadow Brook was 4.41 4/5 slightly less than two seconds off the course record. It was Benguala's second victory in three starts this year. Now a six-year-old, the gelded son of Annapolis-Bennu gained a nose decision over Neji in the 1958 Gwathmey, and appeared at that time to be another outstanding jumper development for Mrs. Marion du Pont Scott and trainer R. G. Woolfe. Lightly raced last year, Benguala disappointed and ran only three times, with a fourth his best performance. According to present plans, he will now be freshened for two engagements at Saratoga in August, where it is expected he will meet Sanford Stud Farm's Sun Dog, winner of the 1959 Grand National.

Annapolis Stakes

The Annapolis Stakes for three-year-olds, at a mile and a half over hurdles, run the previous Tuesday, drew a field of six headed by Claiborne Farm's Ambassador and John M. Schiff's Our Jeep. For the first half a mile, a tight knot of three, Cathness, Naval Treaty and Astrology, vied for the lead, with Jimmy Walker on the classy, if temperamental, Ambassador, doing a man sized job keeping his mount restrained and away from the above three mentioned running on the inside of him. Still using strong arm tactics, Ambassador displaced Cathness in the first three going down the far side, and while jumping out at his fences, followed Naval Treaty and Astrology, which alternated the pace. Midway down the far side, Cathness was through, and Sky's Rhythm, fencing poorly, dropped back to fifth, with Schulhofer on Our Jeep being forced to ride a waiting race. Around the final turn, still under restraint, Am-

FROM ABROAD

WINNER FOR MRS. ISELIN

Purchased at the Newmarket September Sales for 7,000 guineas from the Sledmere Stud, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin's impressive chestnut colt by Pardal out of Three Weeks, by Big Game, was one of the 15 most expensive yearlings disposed of last year in England and Ireland.

Named Pardao, he was the winner on his third racecourse appearance of the important six furlongs Fenwolf Stakes at Ascot on June 18th, recouping 1,235 pounds of his purchase money. Always well placed, Pardao took the lead close home to win by half a length at odds of 10-3. His owner was at the meeting to witness his success.

Three Weeks was herself a good winner and has already bred three previous winners including Short Sentence, a filly which was obtained as a yearling in 1957 for 11,500 guineas by the English National Stud and raced in the colors of the Queen. She traces to Pretty Polly.

THE CHRONICLE

KEENELAND CATALOGUE FOR 1960

The Breeders' Sales Company of Lexington, Kentucky, has catalogued 322 yearlings for their Summer Sales. On the cover of the company's catalogue is this year's Kentucky Derby winner, Venetian Way, who was purchased out of the John W. Greathouse consignment of 1958, by Mr. Isaac Blumberg of Chicago, for $10,500. Venetian Way is the fifth Kentucky Derby winner sold at the Keeneland Sales in the past fifteen years.

Original entries for the sales totalled 633 horses, which were pared down to the 322, whose pedigrees are catalogued for this year's yearlings. Over a hundred stallions have got at the sales. Some of the best bloodlines in the world, both on the male and female sides of the families, are represented in the offerings by the Breeders' Sales Company's consignors.

The Chronicle has included photographs of some of the stallions who will be represented by their progeny at the vendue. We have often wondered why sales companies have not seen fit to publish photographs of all the stallions, whose yearlings are catalogued in their sales books. It would be an added expense, but it would go well with the short rundowns on the studs which is part of all sales catalogues today. Good pictures of the sires might also induce some buyers to decide to make a purchase, which in turn, might boost some of the prices. M.R.

ARMSTRONG'S AMERICAN PURCHASES

Whilst over last year for the Keeneland Sales, Newmarket trainer Sam Armstrong bought three yearling fillies.

One of them, Bambola (Botticelli-Mamounia) won for her owner, R. F. Scully, a month ago. The second, the daughter of the 1947 Kentucky Derby winner Jet Pilot out of Miss Busher, Armstrong retained himself and named Speedbird. On her third racecourse appearance when ridden by Armstrong's son-in-law Lester Piggott and starting at 100-8, Speedbird beat the nearest of her 17 rivals by a length in the Royal Lodge Plate over five furlongs at Windsor.

Ma Ma Mia, the third of the Armstrong purchases, has yet to run.

FINE SON OF *SOLAR SLIPPER

The good-looking four year old New Brig put up a really fine performance when carrying top weight of 120 lb. to a 1 1/2 lengths victory against a dozen rivals in the two miles Northumberland Plate worth 1,545 pounds at Newcastle. Last at one stage of the race he raced through smoothly on the outside in the straight to win readily.

This is the four year old's fourth consecutive victory in as many starts this year. Purchased as a yearling for 2,900 guineas for his 78 year old Scottish owner John Kennedy, New Brig won four more races last season. He is a son of *Solar Slipper, who now stands at Leslie Combs' Spendthrift Farm. P.T.C.

MIGOLI HAS FAST TWO YEAR OLD IN IRELAND

Migoli, sire of *Gallant Man who now stands at Brokaw Ranch in California, has left behind in Europe what is undoubtedly a very fast colt in the two year old China Clipper, trained in Ireland by T. Shaw on behalf of American-born Mrs. A. B. Biddle.

Second in his two races, once behind the flying Floribunda, China Clipper then ran out an easy winner of the Patriotic Stakes at Baldoye. He was then sent on his first visit to England for the Seaton Delaval Stakes at Newcastle worth 2,731 pounds to the winner, in which he was opposed by the previously unbeaten English colt, The Derry. As the latter had to concede 5 lb., China Clipper was at 4-1 on and won most convincingly by a length and a half, with the third horse a further six lengths away.

Bred by his owner, China Clipper is out of the Pink Flower mare, Taipeh. P.T.-C.

NAMING THOROUGHBREDS

Under the inflexible rules of The Jockey Club, no horse's name may contain over 16 letters, including spaces; no great name of the past such as Man o' War, Equipoise, Exterminator and the like may be duplicated; horses may not be named to advertise manufactured products; nor may they be too similar in sound or spelling.

But sometimes, along the way, there's a "boo boo" in the Registrar's office. One horse racing at Waterford Park, during the season which extends through August 6, is Home Addition. He could cause quite a bit of confusion if entered against Home Edition, another horse performing in the East. King's Bequest and King's Request make another interesting pair, while race-goers of a few years ago were puzzled when Artist's Lide and Artist's Life ran against each other at Monmouth Park, and when Diaquari and Daiquari were members of the Chicago sprinting colony.

After all, it's not too easy to name a Thoroughbred, with some 12,000 new names being used annually. After such a name has been permitted, it may not be duplicated for another 15 years - and owners often run out of ideas. Mrs. James F. Edwards, whose husband is President of Waterford Park, has the chore of naming all the youngsters foaled at their Berryville, Va., Audley Farm. A daughter of Devil Diver continues to plague her, for the first two sets of names submitted to the Jockey Club Registrar have all been turned down. She is now composing a third list.

A few years ago more than 50 names were submitted for one colt, and all were found unsuitable by The Jockey Club. Finally, in desperation, the owner wired and said: "You name him." That did the trick. The colt became - U-name-him. Another youngster, a bay son of Sortie, also experienced difficulty in finding a "handle" to carry through his racing career. When the perplexed owner at last appealed to The Jockey Club he was merely named Sortie's Son.

The painter Opie, when once asked with what he mixed his colors, answered "with brains", and on the turf much the same procedure must be followed if the horse is to receive a proper appellation. That has not always been the case, particularly in England where one horse carried the name of Here Comes Charley With His Eye Knocked Out, a sort of nomenclatural tin can on the tail of an equine's self respect. And there was also the English race horse, Crytochonchoiphyastigmatic, a jaw breaker in any language.

At least American fans have never had to unscramble such names as this in their last moment dive to the pari-mutual windows.

TOM SATTERWHITE

Tom Satterwhite, of Versailles, Ky. had a "do it yourself" entry in the River Downs Hurdle Handicaps. This was Baron Ford, a six-year-old son of *Solero. Satterwhite hunted Baron Ford all winter with the Iroquois pack, and in the spring took him to his Green Way Farm, and galloped him for six weeks. This schedule resulted in two very good seconds in the early Virginia race meets and a third at River Downs.

DELAWARE TICKET BOOKS

Delaware Park has taken a tip from the corner movie house. Now you can buy books of tickets to get into the track, such tickets costing less in book form than if you just walked up to the gate and paid day by day.

A book of 20 tickets can be bought for a saving of about 16% over the day-to-day rate and the books are transferrable so you can lend yours to Aunt Jennie when you can't sneak off from your job. The only thing is, though, the books of tickets aren't good on week ends, so you really do have to goof off from your job to get full value from them. Otherwise you'll buy the book of tickets and Aunt Jennie will do all the going to the races.

This sounds like a pretty good promotion. People will buy the books to save the money and then, having the books, will figure it costs nothing to go to the races. Like sometime when it is a question of whether to go to the races or the beach, the family will decide, "Oh heck, let's go to the races. We have the tickets and it's closer and besides Louis the Lump gave us a hot one in the third."

Delaware Park will have fashion shows on opening day and every Thursday after that throughout the 55-day meeting.

WITHOUT THE HORSE?

The matter of instructions from trainers to jockeys prior to a race again has provided some rather interesting or at least humorous grist for this correspondent's mill. Well, it seems there was this owner who sidled up to his jockey with a complete set of instructions on how he should run, and what's more, win the race.

"You'll be fourth at the turn," he explained between billowy puffs of cigar smoke. "Third on the back stretch, ease him into second at the far turn." Then the robust one paused, withdrew his cigar, and gave the jock a chance to set himself for the full significance of his final words: "Then you'll take the lead coming into the stretch and bring him on to win."

Surprisingly, everything went according to schedule up to the far turn, but here the horse faltered badly and slipped to the rear of the bunch. After the jockey finally managed to wrestle the animal over the finish line, the owner, red faced and blowing cigar smoke profusely in jerky puffs, was waiting for them.

"What's the matter with you? I told you to move up at the far turn and then come on at the top of the stretch to win!"

"What?" asked the jockey with utter surprise. "And leave the horse?" E.O.

PIZZA BAKING JOCKEY

Here's another one for the "people in racing come from all over" department.

There is an apprentice jockey at Monmouth Park whose name is Luigi Gino. Only his name isn't really Luigi Gino. His real name is Luigi Fratangeli, Gino being his nick name. When it first came time for him to ride in a race, the trainer who held his contract decided "Fratangeli" was too long, so the boy's name was changed to Luigi Gino.

Luigi's father was born in Pittsburgh but he went back to Italy with his parents and stayed there. Bye and bye, he married a local beauty and sired Luigi. The family dodged bombs and made it thru the war with the loss of one of Luigi's two brothers.

After the war was over, Luigi's father came back to the States followed later on by his family.

Luigi worked in a bakery where he made pizza pies before he decided to take advantage of his stature and become a jockey. Strangely enough, the boy still likes pizza pies. He even makes pizzas for his jockey friends. I'll bet they either won't be his friends or won't be jockeys very long when they find out how fast pizzas put weight on the human frame.

SUFFOLK DOWNS REUNION

Race tracks are used for many things. There is sometimes Thoroughbred racing and there is Boy Scout Field Daying. There are picnics and flower displays. There was even the inauguration of the first air mail flight from New York to Washington at a racetrack (Belmont, from the infield). But they had one at Suffolk Downs this year which I'll give you good odds has not been done at a race track before.

The president of the place is Judge John C. Pappas. He went to Boston University School of Law and he graduated in 1925. Since 1960 is thirty five years later, it seemed not unreasonable that the class of twenty five should get together for its thirty-fifth reunion.

The reunion was held at Suffolk Downs. All the old boys assembled there for a day at the races. The feature race of the afternoon was called "The Class of '25" and then there was a cocktail party followed by dinner and dancing in the club house.

Sounds like a lot more fun than elbow bending and singing "Hinky Dinky Parlez Vous."

The Myrtlewood Family

One of the most successful of modern breeding families has been that of Myrtlewood, intimately associated with the Combs family of Kentucky, particularly Brownell Combs and his nephew, Leslie Combs II.

Myrtlewood was one of the better race mares of her time, winning the Francis S. Peabody Memorial, Quickstep, Lakeside, Motor City, Cadillac and Keene Handicaps, Ashland Stakes, two runnings of the Hawthorne Sprint Handicap, half a dozen other races and $40,620 up to the age of four.

The best of her racing offspring were the seven-eighths sisters Miss Dogwood and Durazna, by, respectively, *Bull Dog and his son Bull Lea. Miss Dogwood won the Kentucky Oaks, Keeneland Special Event, Phoenix and Steger Handicaps; and Durazna took the Prairie State Stakes, Breeders' Futurity, Hawthorne Juvenile, Clang and Beverly Handicaps, and a division of the Sheridan.

Miss Dogwood has also proved Myrtlewood's most successful producer, her foals including the Princess Pat Stakes winner Sequence (by Count Fleet); Bernwood (by *Bernborough), who set a new track record of 1:33 4/5 in the Sheridan

Mill; and the Modesty Handicap victor Bella Figura (full sister to Sequence).

Sequence in turn produced the Cowdin Stakes winner Noorsaga, by *Noor.

Miss Dogwood's daughter Amiga (by *Mahmoud), third in the Princess Pat Stakes, foaled the San Felipe Handicap winner Carrier X., by Count Fleet.

Two other of Myrtlewood's daughters have become stakes producers. Her first foal, Crepe Myrtle, by Equipoise, produced the 1948 two-year-old filly champion Myrtle Charm (Alsab), winner of the Spinaway, Matron and Modesty Stakes. She is turn foaled Myrtle's Jet (by Jet Pilot), captor of the Alcibiades and Frizette Stakes, Columbiana, Colonial and Honeymoon Handicaps, and $159,418.

Miss Dogwood's full sister Moonflower produced to Norseman's cover the 1957 filly star Moon Glory, winner of the Alcibiades and Durazna Stakes.

BLUMBERG AND SOVINSKI

Four years ago, Vic Sovinski, an ex-Army sergeant and chief baker for the A and P stores, was sipping coffee in the stable kitchen at Hawthorne Park in Chicago.

Into the kitchen stalked a tiny, elderly man squinting in obvious anger from behind a pair of horn-rimmed glasses. "I'm looking for a good horse trainer," he said. He had just fired his own.

Fifty-two year old Vic Sovinski, who started in pro sports as an outfielder with Decatur, Ill., has been Isaac Blumberg's trainer since. In that brief period he has given the 73-year old retired machinery manufacturer two contenders for the Triple Crown - Lincoln Road, second in the Preakness and Kentucky Derby in 1958, and now Venetian Way, the 1960 Derby winner.

The record is the more remarkable because, of the 23 horses which Sovinski has purchased for Blumberg at public auctions since 1956, none has cost more than $15,000.

Lincoln Road, winner of $128,375 as a three-year old in which he was never out of the money in 10 starts, cost a mere $3,100 as a yearling. In the summer of that same year Sovinski picked out the colt to be named Venetian Way and successfully bid him in at Keeneland for $10,500. Venetian Way's Derby victory on May 7 hiked his earnings to $280,027.

HIRSCH JACOBS, 11 times the country's leading trainer, says:

"For a stakes winner like Promised Land only the best will do. I use Absorbine."

"For years now, veteran horsemen have known the value of Absorbine as a leg-tightener," continues Mr. Jacobs, "—used either straight on filled tendons or in a daily wash. But in my stable I like it as a body-wash, too—helps horses cool out and stay supple, especially colts. Sure, there are a lot of liniments around, but I prefer the best, Absorbine."

Since 1892, a bottle of Absorbine has been standard equipment in the best stables, as an astringent, conditioner, and gentle antiseptic. When used either full-strength or in a wash, Absorbine is consistently effective, yet safe—won't cause blistering or loss of hair. The large, long-lasting bottle is still only $2.50 at any druggist's.

Promised Land numbers the $100,000 Added Pimlico Special among his many wins.

BALLY ACHE SETS A RECORD

In the Jersey Derby which had its first modern running on Memorial Day, that wonderful colt (in spite of his name), Bally Ache, established a record for stuffing money in his wallet. He is the only horse in history which has picked up two such large checks on successive week ends. That is, of course, stretching the week end to include Memorial Day on Monday.

In 1959, Vertex became the first animal to win $100,000 races on successive Saturdays. He won the Gulfstream Park Handicap and the John B. Campbell back to back. Well, Bally Ache did him one better. Bally Ache won a $150,000 race on May 21 and then a $100,000 one on May 30. Vertex is still the only one to have won two in eight days, but Bally Ache is the only one to have won so much in such a short time. That brings Bally Ache's score for the year to three $100,000 added races plus one $150,000 added one, plus a second in a $125,000 added race. And he is the colt everybody tabbed as nothing but a sprinter. Each of those big races was 9 furlongs or longer.

It looks as if the syndicate which bought Bally Ache hit upon something just about as good as the "license to steal" people keep talking about. R. J. Clark

PRAIRIE HORSEMEN WANT GOVERNMENT COMMISSION

Prairie horsemen and Thoroughbred breeders have recently expressed dissatisfaction with he newly created Alberta-Saskatchewan Thoroughbred Society and want a government commission to govern the turf sport in the two provinces. In addition, members of the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association at a meeting in Calgary, agreed unanimously to a resolution asking that the provincial government appoint a three-man body to look after racing in Alberta. The hope was expressed by Lucien Maynard, HBPA president, that if Alberta was to take the lead in this respect Saskatchewan might soon follow suit.

Another sore point brought out at the meeting was the deplorable conditions of the barns and stabling area at Victoria Park, which were termed by some of the horsemen present "as most disgraceful" particularly in adverse weather. Members also received notification that the HBPA has cancelled insurance against fire and transportation losses of horses because the fire hazard at all four Western Canada Racing Association tracks (Calgary, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Regina) is too great.

The annual HBPA banquet will be held in Edmonton sometime in August. It is hoped that well-known race horse breeder and industrialist, E. P. Taylor, will be the guest speaker. E.O.

ENGLAND TO INTRODUCE PATROL CAMERA

The patrol camera was used for the first time in England at Newmarket on June 30th when three cameras were used as opposed to the six normally employed in the U.S.A.

With the diversification of racing and the different types of courses in England, it is far more difficult to obtain patrol film coverage than it is in the United States. The use of it at the Newmarket First July Meeting will be in the nature of an experiment.

English equipment will be employed and it is estimated that the films will be available for inspection by the Stewards even quicker than they are in America. At a recent demonstration of a race filmed at Sandown Park given to press representatives, all were most favorably impressed with the clarity of the films.

HUNTING

Hunting Tour

Wilbur Hubbard, M.F.H.

A joint meet of the Elkridge-Harford and Green Spring Valley Clubs was held at "Atlanta Hall", the estate of Edward S. Voss, Esq., who has been M.F.H. of Elkridge-Harford Hounds for many years. His Joint Master, Dean Bedford, Esq., and Field Master, Benjamin H. Griswold, Esq., led the field of over 100 riders, many of them very smartly turned out and beautifully mounted.

Mrs. Bedford is always a model of perfection. Mrs. Cornelius Rathborne, in spite of being the senior member of the field, was riding right up front. Mrs. S. Bryce Wing, mounted on a brown perfect lady's hunter, Mrs. Edwin Hower on a lovely chestnut Thoroughbred, Miss Audrey Riker even came out on her champion timber mare "Golden Fly", Mrs. Griswold riding boldly as usual.

Dallas Leith, who has hunted Elkridge-Harford hounds for 25 years and whom

I consider one of the very best huntsmen in America, had been ill with pneumonia. Jack Graybeal, the professional Whipper-in, carried the horn and did very well. Walter Ball, stud groom for Mr. Voss, did a very good job as Whipper-in.

Hounds found immediately behind the Voss stables and we had a short but very fast burst over to a wooded hill beyond Verdant Valley. Horses were in a lather on this close, humid day and all were glad for a breather while hounds marked the fox under a pile of lap wood.

They drew blank a long while and fortunately it cooled off a little. Then, as we were going through the Rieman McIntosh farm there was a View Hallooo over the hill beyond. It took Jack a few minutes to collect his hounds and put them on the line. They ran very fast for the first 25 minutes to a check, then picked it up again and went on at a slower pace for another hour and twenty minutes, making a big loop, going almost to Black Horse, a point of about 4 1/2 miles. Turning there they kept going, down to their noses and trailing part of the time, and then at a faster pace, but sticking to the line.

This fox came back to where found and started on the same loop a second time. Finally, when almost all that big field had pulled out and darkness was approaching, hounds were stopped after they had run this fox about 2 hours. That long gallop took a lot out of horses.

It was a tired but happy crowd as members of these two top notch fields gathered at the Elkridge-Harford Club for "High Tea".

A second day with Elkridge-Harford Hounds, when there was no special occasion and a much smaller field, was also a lot of fun. They ran 4 foxes this day. The first, a 15 minute burst, was over the extreme end of the country to which our long winded fox carried us the previous Saturday. They marked this one to ground.

Hounds ran a second fox 25 minutes. During this run we were largely in wooded areas. They then drew a long way toward home.

Eventually, a third fox was viewed away out of the club covert and ran over to "the Sprouts" where the pack divided - a few hounds getting off on another fox in that woods. We followed the main pack across General Maud's lovely valley, but not over the hills where those big plank fences are. We crossed Fallston Road and made a big semi-circle to the left over rolling country, new to me. Hounds must have been well behind this one, for they were working hard much of the time. They crossed a lateral road and finally back across Fallston Road, returning from the other side of Harvey Ladew's place, ending in his famous Topiary Garden. This good run lasted 45 minutes.

Almost all the field pulled out as they again passed the Club, but Jack went back to the "Sprouts" to pick up the hounds left there and found them running. The hounds with him joined in and they ran another 30 minutes, marking this fox to ground on Mr. Tom Eastman's place.

This is a hard working pack of cross-bred hounds which have shown me a lot of sport over the years.

Alone With A Strange Pack

When the bibulous Sir Harry Scattercash M.F.H., (after a very 'wet' night), found that his horse, his huntsman's horse, and the mounts of all those still with his hounds, were stone cold, it may be remembered Mr. Sponge borrowed the huntsman's horn and continued the hunt alone. Unfortunately the fox not only ran into Lord Scamperdale's country but also into his lordship's pack, which pulled him down. Lord Scamperdale was furious at the intrusion and addressed Mr. Sponge as 'you sanctified, putrified, pestilential, perpendicular, gingerbread-booted-counter-skipping snob; you think because I'm a lord and can't swear, or use coarse language, that you may do what you like. I'll fight you, sir, any non-hunting-day you like, sir, 'cept Sunday'. And then Surtees records: "There are pleasanter situations than being left alone with twenty couple of even the best mannered fox-hounds".

That was exactly what Mr. Gregory Frith (clerk of the course at Manchester and Thirsk), found one day last week. He is making regular visits to Thirsk race-course to supervise improvements in progress there and stole an hour or two away to see Mr. Donald Sinclair's Harriers at work Middleham way.

At dusk Mr. Frith found himself alone on top of Penhill Beacon (1680 ft. above sea level), with half the pack. He did not know their names, had neither whip nor horse, and was faced with the task of getting hounds down to the Master 1600

ft. below. He did so, and told me:

'We had a good day, and I enjoyed it. It's a grand country above Middleham and I like the people in those parts. They remind me of my Cumbrian friends in that they all take an interest in hunting, as well as racing, and are ready to assist in any way. We had some wonderful sport recently with the Coniston, Blencathra and Ulverston in Cumberland'. J.F.-B.

Wissahickon Valley

Though the weather man did his darnedest to "dampen" Wissahickon, his efforts proved totally useless (excepting physical dampness), for never have I seen such a large group of spectators and exhibitors obviously enjoying themselves despite the miserable cold, rainy weather. Fewer exhibitors than usual were deterred by the rain, and, what was more amazing, business in the country fair area seemed to be booming most of the day.

As usual at Wissahickon, and most other shows in the area for that matter, classes had to be run simultaneously at the end of the day in order to finish before dark. How much easier it would be for exhibitors if show committees would start doubling up at two or three o'clock instead of seven at night or, better yet, would, in the prizelist, schedule classes simultaneously wherever feasible during the day.

Word has it that this was the last year for Wissahickon on the grounds that Conrad Heckmann has so graciously donated for many years. Plans are already underway for new and larger show grounds to be located in the heart of Fairmount Park. Mr. Heckmann is indeed to be thanked for the generous use of his property (which took a beating in this year's rain!) over the past years. Fencepost

At a recent meeting of the Exmoor Pony Society at the Crown Hotel, Exford, England, it was decided that beginning in 1961 "no pony shall be registered unless its sire and dam have already been registered in the Stud Book of the Society." It was also reported that Mr. Ross Hoggart, vice president of the Canadian Exmoor Pony Society, had purchased a stallion and five mares from the herds of Mr. R. Williams, Mr. Milton and Mr. H. Grazing Fields

Mrs. Hope G. Ingersoll of Grazing Fields, Buzzards Bay, Mass. writes: - "We have had Welsh Mountain Ponies on our place continuously since the early 1890s, our first stock coming from Mr. Theodore N. Vali's Speedwell Farms in Lyndonville, Vermont.

"One of our mares from there, Llanboidy No. 293, was a great winner - at the age of 18 years plus she won 6 blue ribbons at the Brockton Horse Show in Open Classes. She was by Llewellyn Bach 231 out of a pure Welsh Mountain Pony mare.

Among the descendants of ponies imported from England and registered in the first (American) Welsh Pony and Cob Society Stud Book we have one tracing to Brigand 312 (Champion Dyoll Starlight (4), ex Brownie (905); one tracing to Redlight 155 (Champion Dyoll Starlight) (4) ex Pretoria; and one tracing to Forest Vessie's Nessie 129 (Mothvey Flyer ex Vessie 118).

In 1925 we were fortunate in buying the following mares Shelburne Fashion 1071 (Greylight A.L., a son of Champion Greylight 80 ex Greylight's Fashion; Manomet Little Bess 1072 (by Greylight A.L. ex Little Me 3507); Champion Gwyndy Twinkle 4910 (Champion National Show in London, 1914, Sire: Champion Bleddfa Shooting Star - dam: Champion Gwyndy Flyaway); and her son - a lovely colt sired by Greylight A.L. and his two-year-old full sister Manomet Twinkle Twinkle 1073.

Later realizing the value of Greylight A.L.'s progeny we added Mayfly 1128 sired by him and out of Grove Ballet Girl and a half-sister - Footlight 1129 sired also by Greylight A.L. out of Lightfoot 864.

From these mares came Golden Dawn 1152 (by Ch. Farnley Sirius - Manomet Little Bess) that did good winning and produced Saddle Acre Dawn's Delight 1651 that has been producing so well for Messrs Cole and Richardson. Also Champion Thunderbolt 1150 (Ch. Farnley Sirius - Mayfly) Best Pony of All Breeds - Harford County Show - 1948, and sire of Severn Black Opal 1285 that has done so well at shows, including Madison Square Garden.

Two of our present herd sires are Aldebaron 1299 - full brother to Thunderbolt, and Chwinciad Cynnen 1172 by Ch. Farnley Sirius ex Manomet Twinkle Twinkle 1073.

In 1958 we consigned the top yearling filly and 2nd high weanling filly of the Maryland Pony Breeders Sales. In 1959 we had 3rd high yearling filly from a herd of 6 mares of producing age. In recent years we have added mares of quality and breeding: - Imp. Revel Penwen (Revel Springlight - Revel Snowpride), dam of Farnley Pendant, Best in Show, Maryland Yearling Show; of Farnley Penelope, 1st Indian Rock Show, 1955; of Indian Rock Penglyn, herd sire at Broadview Farm, Warrenton, Va.; and of Penrhyn Pennyroyal, 1st and Champion Welsh, Eastern States, 1959.

Imp. Coed Coch Wenol 1861 (Champion Coed Coch Madog - Bolgoed What Again), her first foal was Penrhyn Pomplwn, 2nd high weanling Maryland Pony Breeders Sale, 1958.

Magic Comet 1581 (Ch. Sylvia's Comet - Windholme Sprightly) Res. Ch. mare as three-year-old, Lance & Bridle Show, 1956 and dam of Tan Gwyllt, top yearling filly Maryland Pony Breeders Sale 1958.

Imp. Trefesgob Arclight 9815, a winner at Richmond, Eng., (Champion Craven Daylight ex Craven Fairylight), dam of Imp. Panskanger Candelight, 1st yearling,

THE CHRONICLE

Eastern States, 1958 and Lystra Light, 4th weanling Maryland State Fair, 1959 (by far the youngest entered.)

Champion Fox Hollow Starspate 1850, 1st foal and Breeding Champion, Purcellville, Va. 1955; 1st foal, Jr. Champion and Res. Gr. Ch. mare, Maryland Pony Show, 1955. First Foal of All Breeds, Frederick, Md., 1955 (she is a full sister to Champion Fox Hollow Singing Star 1571). Starspate is dam of 3rd weanling filly Eastern States, 1959.

Among our two year olds retained for breeding are Madame Butterfly 3241 by Champion Pendock Puccini ex Tan Lan Briallen and the aforementioned Penrhyn Pennyroyal.

In yearlings: - Terfyn Fae Coco (Leeway Brilliance - Cedar) 2nd weanling & Res. Ch. Weanling, Eastern States, 1959.

Along with our present sires we are using Severn Oaks Sceptic 2727 (Champion Whitehall Morning Star - Coed Coch Trysor, dam of Severn Black Opal - Severn Treasure (Best in Show Md. State Fair, 1950 - Severn Black Diamond, etc.), and Leeway Brilliance 2316 (Farnley Sunshine - Farnley Vega, 2nd filly foal Maryland State Fair, 1953, 2nd Bryn Mawr, Pa. 1953.) This pony has since been sold to Mr. Wilmer Ifill of Wappinger Falls, N. Y.

Other mares or fillies: - Imp. Stardust B3796 (Champion Wentworth Golden Star - who won Grand Champion of all Pony Breeds at Shows in England in 1949 and 1951 - ex Felicity's Grey Mist by Champion Bwlch Quicksilver.) Stardust was 1st yearling Shropshire & West Midland Show, Eng. (her filly foal by Coed Coch Glyndwr - Penrhyn Glyndwr Dwt 5067) and the homebred mare Tinben Ceffyl 1300 sired by Aldebaron 1299 and out of Manomet Twinkle Twinkle (a line-bred Dyoll Starlight). Tinben's 1957 colt foal (sired by Chwinciad Cynnen) Tyngor Ceffyl was sold at 4 days of age to the Portledge Stud, South Windsor, Vermont.

Her 1958 colt foal, Terfyn Fae Tewyn Ceffyl, sired by Hinton Beacon (Gaerstone Beacon - Criban Posy) is being used at stud on a few of our own mares this spring.

Myopia Beats Harvard Polo Club

Individual Harvard players have played at Myopia since it's earliest days, but not for some years have four undergraduates played there as a team. On Sunday, June 12, the big field was dry at last, the rain held off, and a round-robin of 7 periods was staged before a good crowd. Most of the periods were relatively fast and well played, with some solo scoring runs the length of the field, in spite of the fact that everyone lacked practice on the turf, due to an uncooperative New England May and early June.

The Myopia Reds were the winners (Heath Morse, Don. Little, Everett Crossman - who went down with a goalpost in the day's only spill -, Neil Ayer & Joe Poor); the Myopia Yellows were second (Cy. Newbegin, Linc. Brigham, Crocker Snow, Les. Crossman, C. G. Rice & Tim Clark); and Harvard was third (#1 Russell Clark, playing against his father; #2 Crocker Snow Jr., also against his father; #3 Adam Winthrop; #4 Tommy Hitchcock).

Inclement is a printable word for the weekend weather to date. Thanks to the arena, however, play has been possible on all but one Sunday in eight, even with standing water. After five Sundays of rain, May 29 was clear, and the practice field useable. 13 players turned out for 6 periods of cut-in, for the first time this season on grass. On the night of June 1, when the new arena was to be officially opened, after a get-together dinner - it rained. Being used to it by now, the players ignored it, and enjoyed 6 periods under the lights. On Sunday, June 5, the sky was clear; but Saturday's downpour washed out play on the grass fields. So again we repaired to the arena, where we had 7 periods, split among 12 players. Jackie Sullivan took advantage of a "72" from the Army to get in his first game of 1960. We had two out-of-town guests - the Editor of The Chronicle watched the play, and Zenas Colt deserted the Blind Brook Club for the day, to play and Referee. LFB

Eastern Polo League

For the first time in United States Polo history, announcement is made of the formation of a high-goal polo league to be known as the Eastern Polo League. Sanctioned and approved by the United States Polo Association, it is anticipated that the Eastern Polo League will be the forerunner to establishment of other such leagues in polo centers throughout the country.

Five teams are entered in the league, representing the top players in eastern polo. Meadow Brook is headed by the internationally known six goal Dev Milburn; Aiken by the famous all around horseman, Pete Bostwick, at seven goals; Blind Brook by Bill Ylvisaker at seven goals, who is best remembered by easterners as a member of the famous West team in the 1950 East-West series; Greenwich, a new name in polo circles, organized by industrialist George Skakel, by hard-riding Herb Pennell at five goals; and Frank Butterworth's New Haven team by Yale coach Albert Marenholz at five goals.

Each team has a squad of six players from which to draw their four man team. Games will be played on a handicap basis each Sunday at the Meadow Brook Club, Jericho, Long Island, and the Blind Brook Polo Club, Purchase, New York. The fans will be treated to a definite team roster and a fixed schedule, with each team playing the other two times for a total of eight games each.

The League Committee having jurisdiction over all league play is composed of captains of each team and William Ylvisaker, Northeastern Circuit Governor of the United States Polo Association, as Chairman of the League.

All five teams have been working to be in shape for the opening games on Sunday, June 12th. Renewed interest has been created by this competition for the Eastern Polo League trophy. Many new ponies have been brought from the West and Southwest to strengthen the teams, and it appears as though this will be the best year in eastern polo since its revival after the war in 1946.

League standings, individual scoring totals and the following Sunday games and line-up will be released each Wednesday from the League headquarters at Blind Brook Polo Club. For further information contact Robert Stanley, Purchase, N. Y. or Mrs. R. Heller, Leo Miller Associates, Westport, Conn.

Memphis Polo

A. L. Herman

In a two match inter-city Polo series Memphis Polo Association defeated the Dallas Athletic Team at Dr. Raworth Williams' Meadowbranch Field, Dallas, Texas, in the first game on Friday, May 20, 10-4 and the second game on Sunday, May 22, 8-7. An inspired Memphis Team led by veteran six-goaler, John Armstrong played sensationally in the Sunday's game, in which he scored 6 of the 8 goals scored by the Memphis Team. The line-ups for the Friday's game were -

Memphis	Dallas
T. Hilliard	R. Williams
R.E.L. Wilson III	R. Beveridge
J. Armstrong	C. Starks
A. Herman	W. Hudson

L. Ramos substituted for Starks in last three periods for Dallas.

Umpire - R. Goodnight.

Memphis scoring - Armstrong, 4; Wilson, 3; Herman, 2; Hilliard, 1.

Dallas scoring - Williams, 2; Beveridge, 2.

In the Sunday's game on May 22, the line-ups were the same except Starks played the entire match, and J. Rodriguez and L. Ramos were umpires.

Memphis scoring - Armstrong, 6; Hilliard, 1; Wilson, 1.

Dallas scoring - Williams, 2; Beveridge, 3; Starks, 1; Hudson, 1.

Since the Dallas match, Memphis Polo Association has defeated the Louisville Polo Team 9-4, and the Pierre, South Dakota Team 8-4 at Memphis, Tennessee. Match series are being played against St. Louis Polo Club at St. Louis the weekend of June 25-26.

Letters To The Editor

of the Cross Country Phase. I have only a vague idea of the results, and of course no idea at all of the outcome of today's Stadium Jumping. Thanks to The Chronicle, I will find out in about three weeks! There is not one word of information in any San Francisco paper, though there are several columns about Olympic try-outs in other sports.

This is not intended to be a reflection on Mr. Collins' superb management of the Three-Day Trials, but rather on the attitude of the press. I owned the riding school at Mills College, in Oakland, for five years ('54-'59). During that time, we were fortunate in having many outstanding West Coast horses in our shows, some known locally, and others over a greater area, such as Tallyho, Miss Butch, Brac na Ri, Cold Tea, Anytime, Proud Sirde, Remember Me, Golden Arrow, and Sissi - with riders of ability to match. At another time, thanks to the generosity of Mr. Galvin, Major Borg gave a lecture and demonstration of dressage on the '56 Olympic Gold Medal winner, Juli.

I never once succeeded in having any of this published in the sports section of any San Francisco or Oakland paper, though the society editors were generous. I wrote to the sports' page editors of the major Bay Area newspapers, presenting as well as I could the case for riding as a newsworthy sport, but never had an answer from even one of them.

This is an old story, well known to all Chronicle readers who have ever tackled the problem. We are all aware that if results could be published, and equally important, time-schedules, we would gradually build attendance at shows, with the delightful outcome that once attendance was properly developed, the press would take an interest anyway.

Based on my own personal frustration about the Pebble Beach Three-Day Event, my point is this: equestrian enthusiasts may be weak in number at present, but if all who are interested would telephone their local newspaper to inquire the results of every local show, I am sure the editors might decide that it would be simpler in the long run to publish the results in the first place. With only a little very inexpensive effort, we might even reach a point at which the press would ask the show management for news in advance!

Why not have show announcers request that spectators interested in this cause telephone their local papers? I think it is time for show managers to study the text of Mohammed and the Mountain...I also refuse to believe that the general public is really more interested in the results of the ladies' shot put than in those of the equestrian games.

Sincerely,

Mrs. James M. Tucker
Piedmont, Calif.

Sorry, Wrong Owner

Dear Sir:

The results of the Upperville Colt Show published the owner of the two-year-old PIRNEWOB as Lorraine Clarkson. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bowen were the owners and are still the owners of this colt.

Our problem is that our phone is besieged with calls because we have told all our friends this colt was not for sale and they now feel neglected.

We would certainly appreciate a notice to this effect.

Cordially,
Mrs. Bobby Burke
Middleburg, Virginia

(Editor's Note: In the same issue, June 24, on page 21, we carried Pirnewob's picture with the correct owners. We missed the error in our correspondent's summaries.)

Bright Spot

Dear Sir:

I have just finished reading the June 17th issue from cover to cover. It would be hard to say which was the most enjoyable reading - the editorial, Raleigh Burroughs' article or the report on the Devon Show. If I tried to do so, my eye would fall on some other article and I would have to begin all over again to choose from a new list.

Thanks again for assuring everyone one bright spot in the week - the Day The Chronicle comes.

Very truly yours,

Riders Over Thirty

Dear Sir:

I enjoyed your editorial, "Men in the Saddle" very much indeed. As Secretary of the Mission Valley Hunt, I seldom miss a Saturday's fox hunting and I am also a member of a Western riding club, covered with silver, embroidery and fringe, both of which are a lot of fun.

Of course your idea of re-activating Civil War units has advantages, but a Thoroughbred horse has never been much for riding in parades. I think a simpler idea would be to have events in the horse shows for riders over 30 years of age bassador moved up to take the lead from Astrology, and Our Jeep under urging moved into second place. Coming to the final hurdle with about a length advantage, Ambassador jumped it well, and then very briefly, Walker let his mount run. In the run in on the flat, Schulhofer was all out on Our Jeep, but the Claiborne gelding just coasted up to the wire, winning by two and a half lengths. Our Jeep was easily second best, five lengths to the fore of Naval Treaty and Astrology which were lengths apart for third and fourth.

Time for the race was a modest 2:44, almost four seconds off the record, but easily understandable as the winner was under wraps all the way. In contrast, Our Jeep, which holds the course mark, did not find free racing room until late in the race, and could have put the winner to a harder task.

Fancy Hour Wins

The following day, Mrs. T. A. Randolph's Fancy Hour, a four-year-old, mildly surprised by defeating a field of more experienced fencers going two miles and a furlong over brush. Leading for more than half the distance, he briefly gave way to *Chicago 2nd, which forced the pace to this point, and then took command over the eighth. Opening up going to the far turn, the Thaddeus Trout fencer, showing a big improvement over his previous 1960 efforts, appeared a likely winner, but Fancy Hour with Joe Aitcheson in the saddle, came on again after clearing the final fence, and snatched the win by half a length. It was nine lengths back to Patrice Jacobs' Basil Bee which raced evenly and had no competition for third. The veteran Billing Bear, also raced evenly but appeared to lack a winning stride at every stage of the race. *Lickety Split 2nd, was eased when hopelessly beaten, and Chris Starke dismounted from Blen More when that one began going lame. He did this in a previous race, but a veterinarian's examination showed nothing amiss. However, after his second race, the E. J. Gould fencer clearly showed a back injury which will cause his retirement from racing, at least for this year.

RICHARD DE SAINT PHALLE

Richard de Saint Phalle, 15, has been missing from his home in Scarsdale, N.Y. since January 18th. As he is keenly interested in horses, his family believes he may have taken a job on a ranch or with a riding stable. The boy's photograph is published elsewhere in this issue. His family would be grateful for any information as to his present whereabouts.

THE CASUAL MAN

The Doughoregan Manor horse show held in Ellicott City, Md., brought out a lot of foxhunters who do not show regularly. The H. Robertson Fenwicks had several horses there. Race rider Crompton (Tommy) Smith with Gillian Fenwick on Troutline and Cooper won the very tricky pair class. Tommy was the envy of all for his nonchalance and easy approach to showing. On one of his trips over the outside course he was seen holding a cigarette in his mouth blowing smoke rings over each jump. This leads one to wonder just which brand is "the casual man's cigarette"?

OUT OF CONDITION

Comedian Joe E. Lewis related he was once in the paddock looking over the horses when he noticed his shoe lace was untied. As he bent down to tie it, a near-sighted jockey slapped a saddle on him. "What did you do?" asked a wide-eyed listener.

"What could I do?" replied Lewis. "I was out of condition. I finished out of the money."

GUESS WHO

The well known steeplechase rider, Crompton (Tommy) Smith, Jr. at the Upperville (Va.) Horse Show Grounds, in October of 1938, with his mother, Mrs. John C. Hopewell.

STEEPLECHASE PARTY

There were many parties in connection with the steeplechase days at River Downs Race Track. Following the $5,000 added River Downs Hurdle Handicap, a cocktail dinner dance was held in the newly air-conditioned clubhouse. During the evening River Downs owner, Leon Slavin, presented Mrs. Mary Stephenson and Mr. Charles Heekin, co-chairmen of the special committee for the hurdle events, with attractive ruby-eyed gold fox heads, made in the form of earrings or stick pins. Mr. Slavin also gave Carl Berger, president of the Mid-West Hunt Association and Mrs. Edgar J. Mack Jr., chairman of steeplechase hospitality, fox heads, in appreciation for their efforts in making such a success of the two River Downs jumping races.

AMERICANS AT BADMINTON PUPPY SHOW

Americans attending the recent Puppy Show at Badminton, England, were Wilbur Ross Hubbard, M.F.H., Mr. Hubbard's Kent County Hounds, and Mrs. Dean Bedford, whose husband is Joint Master of the Elkridge-Harford Hunt, both of these packs being in the State of Maryland.

HUNTER-CHASER

Five of the steeplechase entries in the River Downs Hurdle Handicaps had sporting records on their past performance charts. A. J. Long's *Supholaz and Shalati both exhibited and won in the show ring over hunter and jumper courses before trying the hurdle circuit. Shalati was a green working winner before the races at Devon, and afterwards at the Columbus Riding Club Show, and still kept her manners! *Supholaz was the Cincinnati favorite in the hurdle offerings from his wins in the Oxmoor at Louisville, and the Iroquois Memorial at Nashville.

Litigate, owned by Carl Berger, has been a prominent runner in Kentucky and Ohio point-to-points for several years, and won this spring at Lexington and Louisville over four mile courses. Berger has hunted Litigate, a ten-year-old son of Patrimony, often with the Camargo and Iroquois hounds. Another ribbon winner that ran over hurdles was Alphonse "Frenchy" Delarbre's, True Play. This bay has won many classes on the Tri-State Circuit. "Frenchy" is huntsman of the Camargo Hunt in Indian Hill.

HERE 'N THERE AT DEVON

Mr. George Munger seen sporting a coaching (and we don't mean football) coat made for his grandfather in 1904. Hunter-race horse enthusiast Floridian Jane Vaughan took a busman's holiday to see her Rare Edition, now owned by John Vass, perform in the green working division. Former horseman Ronnie Lawler, now in the insurance business, took his vacation to work as starter at Devon, and sold a few horse policies during the week, too. An accolade to the Devon Executive Committee who handled Tuesday night's "Bomb in the grandstand" threat with quiet efficiency. And a second accolade to Devon President Lawrence B. Kelley whose closing night speech, in which he gave recognition and thanks to the more than 950 exhibitors who helped to make the show what it was, was one of the best (and briefest) heard at Devon in many a year.

GARDNER-STEDDING

The engagement of Bobbie Gardner, one of the show game's most capable young riders, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus R. Gardner of Friendly, Md., to Jack Stedding of Baltimore.

Bobbie, known to ring followers for her successes with Moonbeam, Tania, Roll Call and a long list of others, has been riding over fences since she was 3 and was winning hunter championships at 9. Just turned 17, she has one more year as a junior and will begin college next fall.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stedding, also has had many good show ponies and junior mounts. No date has been set for the wedding, as the young couple plans to wait until Bobbie completes junior college.

GOOSE LEADS

The End of Hunt Pony Club drill team stood poised in readiness to enter the show ring gate on the correct measure of music when who should appear but a huge, white, Chinese goose who placed himself exactly in a frontal position. Much to the embarrassment of the drill leader, the quiet amusement of the spectators, and the dismay of the amateur photographers who were not placed to shoot the scene, the goose moved stately (at his own pace) through the gate preceding the horses who were to have made an impressive grand entrance. The fact is that, without being asked, the goose had attended almost every practice. The drill leaders' final words at the last practice were, "I hope the goose doesn't get in the way tomorrow."

OLDEST AMERICAN RACING COLORS

Nobody seems to know quite which are the oldest racing colors in America, but there are three which appear to be running neck and neck. Those three are the colors of Mr. Howell Jackson, the colors of Mr. John Morris, and the colors of Mrs. Frank Hampton of South Carolina. The maroon with maroon cap of Mr. Jackson have been around the eastern tracks lots (Tick Tock) as have the scarlet, scarlet cap of Mr. Morris (Missile a year or so back). But the royal blue, red sleeves, white hoop, and blue cap of Mrs. Hampton haven't been on the racing scene much around the northern tracks in recent years.

The Hampton family goes way back in the history of South Carolina. Wade Hampton was the first governor and the Hampton colors appeared at race meetings at the Washington Course of the Charleston Jockey Club which operated in South Carolina as early as 1792.

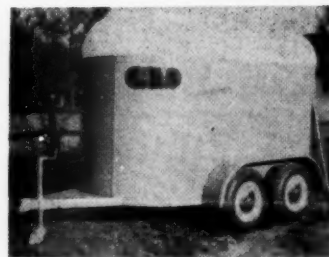

Trainer Max Hirsch who winters at Columbia fired up Mrs. Hampton to get the venerable Hampton colors back on the track again. The lady has done just that. She has had horses running in New York last year and this.

I can't truthfully tell you whether the royal blue etc. is the oldest set of racing colors in the United States (neither can anybody else). But I can tell you that they have been around as long as any. Nice colors, too.
